Quotes of the Day

"Separate bills passed by the Senate and the House of Representatives offer nothing but continued pain to motorists and homeowners. They should be labeled anti-energy bills, because they wouldn't do anything to increase the availability of oil, natural gas and nuclear power ...Democrat "congressional leaders should put some energy in the energy bill...If Congress does pass an anti-energy bill, President Bush should quickly veto it"

--Mobile (AL) Press-Register, 12/4/07

"I know that Congress has low approval ratings, I don't approve of Congress, because we haven't done anything. I would disapprove of Congress as well..."

--Speaker of the House Nancy Pelosi
